Kidnapers were Meses. William Dickson, PTA president; Don Clark, ways and means chairman. Proceeds from the affair went to the PTA fund.

Local Women Attend Moose Convocation

Six Women of the Moose attended the convocation in Inglewood, Sunday, Oct. 30. They were Joyce Clay, past senior regent who received her green beanie at this meeting; Peggy Peacock, Alice Swanson, Helen Benton, Wilverta Heims and Leona Shiffer.

Inglewood Chapter 192 was a host to the College of Regents and all of the Women of the Moose lodges in California. From the 82 chapters in the state 45 were represented. Forty-seven past senior regents were eligible to receive their green beanies, a high lodge honor. Forty were present.

Deputy grand regent, Carol Sealy conducted the opening session at 10 a.m. Mary Heller sang the welcome song and the address of welcome was given by Lillie Towles, of Inglewood. Response was made by Barbara Huber, of Youngstown, Ohio.

Glendale chapter handled the afternoon ceremonies. Richmond chapter initiated 12 candidates. Others on the program were Hilda Lush, Irene Nassau, of Oakland former deputy grand regent; Carol Sealy, of Burbank, deputy grand regent; Investors were Bessie Lovitt, of Long Beach, and Adele Oust, of Visalia. Kay Mahaffey, graduate grand regent of Oakland, extended congratulations. Ruth Allys, of Montebello, and Helen Marks, of New Jersey, reported on the Mooseheart Endowment Funds. Pearl Povol, of Van Nuys, reported on the scholarship fund. Elnore Piedimonte, of Culver City, member of the Grand Council, spoke on the new California building.

The meeting was closed by the Fontana chapter. Agnes Zwally was the pianist for the day.

Regular meeting of the Torrance chapter, Women of the Moose, was held Wednesday, Nov. 3 when Grace Ryan, sponsored by Edna Harbison, was initiated into the chapter. Plans were also discussed for a trip to Chinatown.

The publicity committee is busy with rehearsal of the play to be presented at their Christmas Hat Party on Dec. 21. This party, which will be a pot luck, will be for members and their families. The meat for the dinner will be provided by the committee and each member attending is asked to bring food for six to complement the meal.

Each person is also asked to wear a "funny" Christmas hat. Prizes will be awarded in the three classes, men women and children. Each man will bring a woman's gift, each woman a woman's gift and each child a child's gift. Door prizes will be awarded.

Esther Limbrigger's pupils will stage the program.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

High School

"Freshman Join the Team" is the theme of Torrance High School PTA meet to be held tomorrow evening, Nov. 8, in the high school cafeteria. There will be a panel discussion including two freshmen and two teachers. Miss Kathryn Chisholm and John Lucas.

Problems to be discussed are: How much thought have you given your career and have you discussed it with your parents, teachers and friends?

How quickly are you identifying yourself with the high school and with each other?

What are your counseling problems and are they being answered. Do you understand and are you accepting school responsibilities?

An instrumental group under the direction of Glenn Hawley, music instructor, will entertain. Freshmen mothers will serve as hosts, directed by Mrs. A. Krauzer, hospitality chairman.

Evelyn Carr

Evelyn Carr PTA held the first meeting of the school year on the patio at the school Sept. 27, with over 100 in attendance. The session was presided over by president Mrs. Eldon Morgan who introduced the executive board serving this year. The board members wore hats depicting the various chairmanships.

Announcements concerning a Country Fair were made by Mrs. J. A. Jensen, as well as magazine chairman, W. Towell, acquainting the guests with the state magazine. Membership chairman Mrs. Alex Bates showed the membership poster.

This master poster which will be hung in the most conspicuous place was made by Mrs. Robert Taylor and depicts the good Ship Evelyn Carr putting forth the deep sea divers (36) to bring to the top the treasure of the memberships from Captain Kidd's chest. The slogan being, "Dive for the Treasure, Then Come to the Top With a PTA Membership for Both Mom and Pop!"

Dr. Hull was the guest speaker of the evening and many a citizen in this area went home better informed as to the growth of the school system and the constant vigilance of the school board to meet the needs of such a fast growing populace. Guests were cheered by the announcement that plans were in the making for a cafeteria at Carr School.

Chairman Mrs. J. R. Sanders read the letter drawn up by the committee to be sent to the mayor on the juvenile delinquency problem. Kindergarten teachers spoke on acquainting the child with the first association with others and the schedule followed for the best interests of the child.

Principal Donald Duncan introduced the teachers many of whom are new to the school. Refreshments were served by the executive board of Evelyn Carr PTA.

A group meeting of the room mothers was called for Oct. 12 by co-chairmen Mrs. Robert Holmes, Mrs. Roland Stamm and Mrs. Perry Baker. Attending the meeting in the school home economics room, were 90 chairmen and room mothers, the total mothers having signed up to serve for the year was 190. President Mrs. Eldon Morgan greeted the mothers and chairman Holmes read the duties of the chairmen. Principal Duncan thanked the mothers for the wonderful spirit of cooperation.

Three parties were agreed upon for the year with the refreshments to be simple and as near uniform as possible in all rooms. Each grade level will act as hostess at the various PTA meetings and will also assist in any way with the health program or in any other way deemed important.

A brief resume of the Country Fair was given by Mrs. J. A. Jensen as well as the latest on the membership drive being conducted at the school by chairman Mrs. Alex Bates and her committee. Refreshments were served after the room chairmen had been introduced.
